Dearest mother dolly:

I arrived here in New Orleans, a movie country, Va.--
We got out until the first time since we left, and I got 39 letters.

I was happy to get the card from Bert. Maybe I'll bring him back. Just get the money, and I'll send it back. Have you received any of my mail? Let me know.

As soon as I get a typewriter, I'll write you a long letter.

Write soon. Can you send me a dozen clips, 40¢, wrist watch straps? I need them.

Love,
Harold
